ABOUT OUR WINES

Premium Whites

2023, Carricante, Girolamo Russo Etna Bianco 'Nerina', Etna, Sicily, IT
From high-altitude vineyards on Mount Etna, Girolamo Russo Etna Bianco 'Nerina' is volcanic elegance. Etched with citrus peel, wild herbs and smoky mineral tension, it delivers remarkable purity and energy.

2023, Viura Sierra de Tolono 'Nahikun', Rioja, SP
The Sierra de Toloño Nahikun Blanco 2023 is a complex white Rioja with floral, fresh fruit, and mineral notes from high-altitude, old-vine vineyards. It's truly unique as a field blend including rare indigenous grapes like Calagraño and Rojal alongside Viura, reflecting a pure expression of its unique terroir.

2021, Biancu Gentile, Yves Leccia Altru Biancu' Ile de Beauté, Corsica, FR
A rare and wonderful grape variety that delivers waxy, medium bodied texture, with wild mediterranean herbs, sun drenched citrus, and a distinct salty minerality.

2023, Chenin Blanc, Domaine de Forget 'Clos du Papillon', Savennieres, Loire Valley, FR
Clos du Papillon is one of the Loire's legendary single vineyards — Chenin grown on schist soils that sing. Forget's version is all about precision and energy, showing how Savennieres can rival the world's top whites for age-worthiness.

2023, Clairette/Ugni Blanc, Domaine Tempier, Bandol, Provence, FR
From the iconic Domaine Tempier, better known for its reds, comes this rare white blend. It's a Provençal classic with texture, saline freshness, and a nod to the Mediterranean — perfect for seafood.

2024, Vermentino / Rousanne, Anne Gros & Jean Paul Tollot, Languedoc-Roussillon, FR
The is an elegant white wine crafted by two celebrated Burgundian winemakers working with the high-altitude, limestone terroirs of Cazelles in the Languedoc-Roussillon region. It's fluid, rounded, textured and vibrant with a clean saline finish.

2023, Viognier, Yves Cuilleron 'La Petit Côte', Condrieu, Rhone Valley, SA
Exotic, heady, luxurious. Peaches, apricots, flower and spice melt into a wonderful core of natural acidity. It flows over the palate, yet never feels heavy.

2022, Chardonnay, Vincent Girardin '1er Cru Les Folatieres', Puligny-Montrachet, FR
From one of Puligny's most revered Premier Cru sites, this wine is a masterclass in precision and quiet power. But it's the tension that grabs you. It's simultaneously generous and laser-focused, capturing Puligny-Montrachet at its most noble and age-worthy.

2021, Chardonnay, Vincent Girardin 'V V', Pouilly Fuissé, Burgundy, FR
Old-vine Chardonnay from a master of Meursault, this is white Burgundy without the premier cru price tag. A taste of Burgundy's limestone purity—mineral, balanced, and built to impress.

2018, Chardonnay, Dawson James, Derwent Valley, TAS
Peter Dawson & Tim James have a shared experience of over 80 vintages. It was their dream to craft a single-site Tasmanian wine, and by doing so from the iconic Meadowbank Vineyard, they have created a stunning wine from an incredible vintage.

2024, Chardonnay, Tolpuddle, Coal River Valley, TAS
One of Tasmania's most sought-after Chardonnays, combining white peach purity with fine, restrained oak. Immaculately balanced and quietly confident.

Premium Reds

2022, Pinot Noir, Louis Billard, Vosne-Romanée, Burgundy, FR
With 2 vintages at DRC and 1 at By Farr in Geelong, Louis Billard has created a modern Vosnee Romanee, aged in old DRC barrels. Only 600 bottles produced.

2018, Pinot Noir, Brewer-Clifton 'Machado', Sta. Rita Hills, USA
A benchmark for Californian Pinot Noir with Burgundian intent. Brewer-Clifton helped define Sta. Rita Hills as a world-class Pinot region-this vineyard bottling shows why: site expression, tension, and elegance in one glass.

2022, Pinot Noir, DuMOL, Russian River Valley, USA
DuMOL is one of Sonoma's cult producers, known for their meticulous, vineyard-driven wines. This Pinot delivers the plush texture and depth Russian River is famous for, but with the precision of a Grand Cru Burgundy.

2024, Pinot Noir, By Farr 'Farrside', Geelong, VIC
Iconic wine from a cult producer. The warm of 2024 makes this vintage more appropriate in its youth.

2011, Pinot Noir, Dawson James 'Cellar Release', Derwent Valley, TAS
Peter Dawson's meticulous, low-intervention approach reveals dried cherry, forest floor and gentle savoury depth showcasing how well these wines can age.

2021, Grenache Blend, Clos Mogador 'Tinto', Priorat, SP
One of Priorat's founding modern estates-Clos Mogador is iconic. This wine is bold and intellectual, showing how Grenache (with Syrah and Carignan) can age and rival top Bordeaux in structure and complexity.

2022, Grenache Blend, Anne Gros 'Les Fontanilles', Minervois, FR
Anne Gros is a Burgundy legend, and her Southern Rhone project brings that same finesse to Languedoc terroir. This is Grenache with a Burgundian soul - rare, refined, and proof the region can produce serious wine.

2020, Grenache Blend, Santa Duc 'Les Hautes Garrigues', Gigondas, FR
Santa Duc is one of the leading voices in Gigondas, offering Châteauneuf-du-Pape-level quality at a fraction of the price. This flagship bottling is a lesson in how Grenache can be both wild and noble.

2019, Caiño, Nanclares Y Prieto 'Anfora Vermella', Rias Baixas, SP
The 2019 Nanclares y Prieto 'Ánfora Vermella' Caiño, from 35–50-year-old coastal vines, is a rare solo expression of a grape seldom seen outside Rías Baixas. Raised in amphora, it delivers silken wild red fruits and a whisper of Atlantic breeze. It feels both ancient and modern.

2021, Nebbiolo, Alessandria 'Commune di Verduno', Barolo, IT
Verduno is Barolo's rising star commune, and Alessandria is leading the charge with wines of fragrance and finesse. A great introduction to Barolo for those who appreciate elegance over brute power.

2021, Cabernet Blend, Cullen 'Diana Madeline', Margaret River, WA
This is Australia's First Growth equivalent-biodynamic, age-worthy, and consistently one of the country's greatest wines. If you want to taste what serious Australian Cabernet can be, this is the gold standard.

2022, Cabernet Blend, Te Mata 'Coleraine', Hawkes Bay, NZ
New Zealand's most prestigious red wine-Coleraine has achieved cult status for its Bordeaux-style elegance and cellaring power. A collectible wine that proves NZ does serious Cabernet too.

2022, Syrah, Vincent Paris 'Granit 30', Cornas, Nthn Rhone, FR
Cornas is the wild child of the Northern Rhone, and Vincent Paris is one of its torchbearers. Granit 30 is young-vine Syrah from steep granite slopes-feral, structured, and true to its savage roots.

2022, Shiraz, Kalleske 'Eduard Shiraz, Barossa Valley, SA
This Shiraz draws its distinctiveness from very old, dry-grown vines on the Kalleske property, some planted as early as 1905. It's deep. layed, warming, and structured.

2022, Shiraz, Henschke 'Tappa Pass', Barossa Valley, SA
From the family behind Hill of Grace, this is classic Barossa richness with a polished edge. Tappa Pass shows the depth and history of Barossa Shiraz, made by one of its most respected names.

Paddington Pet-Nats

Il Poggio di Gavi – L'Eco Ancestra (Pétillant Naturel, Cortese)
Softly hazy and gently sparkling, this feels like fruit just finding its voice. Green apple, pear skin and lemon peel move through a light cloud of yeast and almond, the bubbles loose and natural, carrying a faint savoury edge. Dry, refreshing and quietly textured, it finishes clean but keeps the palate awake... Conversation and Moments.

Xavier & Agnès Amirault – La Ferme des Fontaines (Pétillant Naturel, Chenin Blanc)
Bright and gently untamed, this Chenin carries orchard fruit, quince and lemon pith over a fine veil of lees. The mousse is soft and fleeting, more like a breath than a sparkle. It finishes clean, stony and mouth-watering... Movement and light.

Ngeringa – Adelaide Hills Pétillant Naturel
Fresh orchard fruit and citrus blossom rise from a faint natural haze, the mousse soft and fleeting rather than forceful. There's a gentle creaminess from time on lees, balanced by cool-climate acidity that keeps the wine bright and quietly precise, finishing dry with a subtle savoury edge... Energy and Ease.

I Suoli – Piripicchio Rosato Metodo Ancestrale 2020
A softly tinted rosato with a gentle, clouded sparkle.Wild strawberry, blood orange and dried rose drift through the senses. The bubbles feel hand-made rather than engineered, giving a creamy, almost tactile lift before a lightly savoury finish of herbs and stone... Curiosity and Warmth.
